Report: Arran Murphy

The Cumbria Motocross Club did an excellent job at preparing the track for the club's fifth and sixth rounds of the 2009 club championship.

The Junior 65 class was up first with Kyle 'Rusty' Peebles taking two wins and a second position for the overall win ahead of first race winner Callum Bircher who finished the day in second. Jonathon Hughes took home third position.

In the Small Wheel 85 group it was North East rider Aaron Roe taking the overall win ahead of last race winner Joe Sutcliffe who took second overall. Elliott Heap took home a well deserved third.

Jack Kelly dominated the Big Wheel 85 category taking three masterful wins ahead of local rider Arran Murphy who took home second. Ari Ross came back from injury and took third.

The Youth Open were up next with Carlton Husband taking the overall win with two wins and a second place ahead of first race winner Lewis Parkinson who took home second. Simon Thurlow took third.

In the Adult C class Ricky Gibbon took a maximum points haul and the overall win ahead of Ian Ashton in second and Ben Southward in third.

The Adult B class was up next with Callum Thomason taking all three wins ahead of Bradley Harrison in second and Stuart Borthwick took third.

In the Adult A group Graham Riley took two wins and a fourth for the overall win by one point from last race winner and also the Dash for Cash winner Andrew Wilson. Matthew Moffat took home third position.

On Sunday the track was just as good as on Saturday with excellent racing in all groups.

In the Junior 65 class Callum Bircher took home three wins and the overall with Jonathon Hughes in second and Daniel Bewley in third.

Casey Connelly was the winner of the Small Wheel 85 class with Robbie Dowson taking home second position. Saturday winner Aaron Roe took third.

Jack Kelly again took three masterful wins demolishing the opposition. Kane Young and Sam Norris were level on points after the three races with Kane getting second due to the two second places.

Carlton Husband carried over the good form from Saturday onto Sunday and took the overall win ahead of last race winner Jake Gowan. Shane Tolson took third level on points with fourth placed Lewis Parkinson.

In the Adult C class Ricky Gibbon took home the win from second placed Ian Ashton. Ryan Burton took third position overall.

In the Adult B class Stuart Borthwick took the overall win ahead of Bradley Harrison second and Richard Pratt third.

Last up was the Adult A group with excellent racing in the first race when seven riders were all battling for the win, but at the end of the day it was Andrew Wilson who took the overall win from Matthew Moffat in second and race one winner Nathan Rooks in third.
